“ Well Linda we are the shared grandmother of our beautiful grandchildren. I wanted to be the crazy grandma but you earned the rights to the name given by our grandchildren. I thank you for giving my son his wonderful life partner Teresa and our 5 beautiful grandchildren. Sorry Linda but I feel Teresa is my daughter as much as yours so we share that right. Just know that I will always love her as my daughter and I thank you for her.

“ Linda was one of those women who never knew the word "can't". She was always remodeling or redecorating something. The end results turned out somehow even when she wasn't quite sure of what she wanted. Very talented. I see that in both her children. Linda,also, had the biggest heart. She would open her home and heart to those she loved. From the very beginning of our journey together, she always had a place for me even when we hadn't been together for years. Our last time to speak was at Robby's graduation party. We picked up right where we left off many years before that. Surrounded by our children and grandchildren just as we promised we would do someday. That was the way it was for over 45 years. She is making a place for me when I go home. We'll pick right up again.
