

Loretta Mae Lybarger

December 7, 1935 - August 28, 2025

Loretta Mae Lybarger, 89, of Perryville, Missouri passed away Thursday, August 28, 2025 in the hospice wing at the Lutheran Home in Cape Girardeau, MO with her family by her side after years of battling dementia.

She was born December 7, 1935 in St. Louis, MO to Irless Maloy and Beatrice Pearl (Ward) Sandlin.

Loretta married Thomas Lybarger a wonderful Christian man on October 18, 1983 at Bethlehem Baptist Church in Crosstown.

She was the most compassionate person you would ever meet. Loretta accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age and spent her life serving the Lord.

She was a member of Bethlehem Baptist Church at Crosstown where she served as a Sunday school teacher, vacation bible school teacher & helper for many years. She served anywhere she could be helpful. She was the church pianist for over 50 years. In 2010 at the age of 74 Loretta led the start of the Operation Christmas Child Ministry in which the Church just celebrated its 15th year as a drop off center for Perry County.

Loretta retired from Perry County Nursing Home in July of 2002 after 22 years working as a cook. Following that she continued to volunteer there for several more years. She loved to cook and bake and was exceptional at it. She loved visiting and celebrating with her family and friends.
