“ Candy and I met as 18 year olds in 1973 at Ft. McClellan, Alabama. We were there for basic training in the Women's Army Corps. Our time together there and at Ft. Polk, Louisiana started a friendship that lasted until her passing. For most of that time we were "phone friends" sharing the milestones in our lives and of course politics. One of the last things she shared with me was that the past year has been one of her happiest years, being close to her family and enjoying them and her new home town. We will all miss her wit and seeing how much she enjoyed the written word. To her son's and their families I send sympathy for their loss but also joy in remembering Candy and all the things that made her a great friend, mother and grandmother.

“ I have so many fun memories of working with Candy at the Sanibel Public Library and enjoying outside activities as well, Causeway parties, Lollie weekends, parades, hearing stories about her grandchildren, etc. Candy was so helpful to the patrons at the Library.

With deep sympathy, Cathy Cameron

“ My condolences to the family. Candy and I spent many years working together at the Sanibel Library. We shared happy memories from our “work” trip to Las Vegas and especially from our annual Lollie weekends on Captiva Island. Rest in peace, Candy.
