“ I remember working with Mary! Such a wonderful person who never met a stranger and always giving of herself selflessly. She brings a smile to my heart when I think of her! This earth will never be the same. And I'm sure heaven won't either. Rest in peace dear friend you won't your crown! I extend my sympathy to Mike and family and Leroy are companion!

Mary was such a kind neighbor to my parents for many years. She would come over to visit and check in on them. She was a good cook and often brought over tasty treats. She also visited and brought treats to my niece who bought my parents house. She loved Mike and Becky and her grandsons. I often talked to her and Leroy when they would be out on her patio porch swing or find them at Subway having lunch. She loved her family greatly and I know she will be missed by all. - Candy Herzog
