“ Mary was a very special person I feel very privileged to have known her. She always had a smile for you and laughter was her calling card. My grandchildren went to her daycare and I would pick them up once in a while and they were always happy, from their chatter I could tell they loved Mary. She was also a party girl who always made people laugh and enjoy the event. She graduated in my husband,s class at PHS so we attended a lot of homecoming celebrations, Mary brought a lot of jokes and laughter to the party. She will be missed. Rest assured she will a get a high place in heave, because she was a special person. My condolences and prayers to the family.

“ Aunt Mary was a one of a kind. Her laughter would cause all of us around her laugh. Growing up around her she always would say, just go ahead and try it. No matter if it was a good idea or not. She wanted us to learn the lesson. And she will always be remembered for setting at the front table at baby and bridal showers, smoothing out and folding the tissue paper. Aunt Mary, say Hi to mom, dad, and Uncle Tinkle. Love you always. Cindy Lou

“ Mary's family, So sorry to hear. Please accept my sympathy. I used to ride to work at Prince Gardner with Mary and Tinkle and they took Roger, Donna and Dale to the sitter on the island. Those were fun rides and all were a joy to be around. Prayers are with you all.

“ Rest peacefully now Mary, your work here on earth is done. My family was privileged and blessed to have known Mary while she cared for our first born and the years beyond. She was not only a caretaker, but a friend. I will always remember her beautiful smile and laugh! She will be greatly missed.

“ *Enjoy your permanent vacation in heaven, sweet Mary. Bet your laughter and fun personality are bringing joy there, just like it did on earth. You brought so much sunshine to so many lives. The world was better because you were here.
May you continue to wrap your grieving family in a circle of love.
You are missed.
