“ Joy and family: I have very happy and lasting memories of your mother and her parents. In the summer I would stay at Edward and Lilly with house for huge get together. I babysit for morna jean niccum all summer at Lilly and Edward. House. Maxine's was such a beautiful person and had something nice to say at everyone Your mother, Sylvia crites and my mother rose Mary manning bahr were class mates and friends at the duggens school. Small world. I am sure you mother is in heaven sending God's loving grace. Rest in piece Maxine to a beautiful person.

My mother Sylvia Crites and Maxine spoke everyday on the phone. She would tell me how they all went to school and have been friends since grade school.

“ Maxine was such a good friend to my mom, Lily Ochs, as well as to several of her siblings. I remember seeing her in church as a child thinking what a pretty lady she was. Latter I found here to be beautiful on the inside as well. I remember several years back taking Mom to visit her and seeing all her paintings. A very talented lady. RIP lovely Maxine. 🌺
