“ Dear Family, Michael's path and our path have not crossed for many years. But a vivid memory of Brad's is an after high school graduation trip in the summer of 1969 with John Hoehn. John and Brad drove to Phoenix, AZ and picked up another friend, Tom Naeger. On to Los Angeles, CA., where Michael was at that time. Every morning Michael would say, "Let's go to the beach." The memory of this brings smiles and some laughter to Brad. On a day trip they got into a sand storm. Michael's Volkswagon Beetle car was sandblasted by that storm. Sometime after Brad and I were married in 1977, our paths crossed and we shared some pleasant evening visits. We are praying for you. What a comfort to know as Christians, we will share eternity together. Brad and Rita Weber
