“ One of my favorite memories of Jean is when a bunch of us kids came over to your house to go sled riding down the hill toward the old house. We had so much fun, but one trip down the hill we decided to double up on the sled so we could get more speed, well we got more speed alright, we made it all the way to the old house, the sled hit the porch and stayed and we went flying off!! Since we were injured (more our feelings than anything else) Jean said we could come in the house and help her make coffee cake. She showed us how to make it and then we got to eat it! She even sent a Py-O-My mix hoe with me so I could make one at my house. She was a sweet lady! Prayers for comfort for you all
