“ Aside from knowing of Mitch when I was younger and listening to him play music, I never talked to him in person until I became a real estate agent at Preferred Realty. Mitch would stop in quite often for extended chats. I loved listening to his stories. When he left, I always had a sense of calm about me. He had a way of doing that... whether he knew it or not. Mitch will be greatly missed by many.

“ I so hate to hear this. I have known Mitch probably over 50 years. He would sit in with my dad, Bennie Martin, to sing and he always "wowed" the crowd with that deep singing voice that he had. Always had a smile on his face every time you seen him! He will be missed by many!
