“ I am so sad to hear of Mrs. Katt's death. I always remember what a sweet and soft-spoken woman she was. We exchanged Christmas cards for many years and I always enjoyed hearing from her each year. Even in failing health and eyesight, she always had a positive outlook. Faye, Ganesh, and Oliver, I know that you will miss her immensely. Please know that all of you are in my prayers.

“ Dear Faye and family, I knew Mrs. Katt when I taught a special Bible class for Kaye and her peers. She was a kind, sweet lady. Mrs Katt usually had a smile on her face. What a lovely picture. May your faith bring you comfort and peace.
