“ I only met Pauline a few times when my husband and I visited family in Jackson for Christmas. A few years back, I had the privilege of driving to Altenberg to pick up Pauline and bring her back to the house for the annual Christmas celebrations at Ron & Chris's home. I thoroughly enjoyed listening as she shared her German heritage and life experiences. I was sad to not have her join us this last visit as she was not up to it. I missed chatting with her and seeing her beautiful smile.
