“ My sympathies to Randy's family. I remember riding the bus with Randy, he always had interesting things to talk about. Mostly I remember many times spent with him and friends in the park. He was always such fun. His artistic talent always amazed me. May he rest in peace.

“ The world has lost a beautiful soul. I went to school with Randy and he was always doing something to laugh with. I didn't know what art was until I saw his work in high school. He gave me one of his pictures and it was displayed wherever I lived for many years. His art really showed me a different way to view things. I was creative musically, but there was such a talent in Randy it was amazing. My granddaughter has drawn anime for years and her black and white always reminds me of Randy. I am so sorry for his family's loss and for the world's.
