“ I had the privilege to care for Jean for a few months . She always would laugh when I saw her. Most of the time I had to find her in the facility.

SHE LOVED TO ROME ALL OVER THE PLACE. Her smile was worth a thousand words. She was a blessing to me. Prayers for all her family. Gail d. Vellella Legacy hospice.

“ My sympathies to all my cousins. I remember the time Mary Lou and I cut pictures out of catalogs and glued them to the walls in her room. I don't think Aunt Jean was very happy when she found us but she kept her cool. I don't know how! She was a sweetheart. I am sorry to say but Jim and I are out of town until Tuesday afternoon so we will not make it to the services. ❤️
