“ Rob;
I learned of Robby's passing from Lisa Green just this morning. I am so very sorry. Oh my, I am sorry for you, your wife and Robby's family. Robby worked at Koch Corporation with you and others for many years. Traveled all over the country, living in hotels and "making it happen." I have always appreciated your and your family's contribution to Koch Corporation and have considered you a friend.

I am glad to understand that Robby was a man of faith. Although he will be missed we know he is safe with his Maker.

“ Where do I begin, I considered Robby as a brother. Robby, Jen, Berrek and I where the closest of friends. We all meet back in 2000'ish when Robby was the coolest lead singer of #3rd Gear , he and Berrek loved to jam out together and also lived together in downtown STL. This is all when our life long friendship began. There are far to many happy memories to share and think about of us laughing and hanging out. One particularly special memory to us both is when Jen and Rob went into labor with their first child they called us in for a few last minute things they needed in the hospital. We ran around like crazy buying a video camera and other various requests they needed. What an honor to be able to share that awesome time with them. Im sure most of you know how much Robby loved German culture, and from here on out when I think of him it will be a picture in my mind of him laughing, singing loudly with a giant stein of beer in his hand cheering.....

“ My first memory of meeting Robby was of him sitting in a room at a party playing his guitar and singing about 20 years or so ago and my last memory of him was when I was lucky enough to run into him, Jen and the kids at the special Regional Convention last summer...it was either during lunch or end of the day and everyone was hot and exhausted and trying to get out of the building and he took the time to stop and chat a min & of course made me laugh about something like he always did. Anyone that knew him knew that Jen & the kids were his world. We cannot wait to talk with him soon enough...it has to be just around the corner.

Robby was a great grandson and he loved his family they were his hole world. If i need his help he was right there we loved him so much. Grandpa and i are going to miss very much. I Rember one time he was playing music and his music was different to what i was used to . He said i don't usely play country but this is for my grandmother snd he played Johnny cash. And did a darn good job he could play any kind . He had a good band.

I went to Dupo congregation with Robby and Jen. I loved working with Robby because he was so polite and thoughtful of the elderly ones we would meet at the door. Love them both!!!

“ My sympathies to all the Yount family. Your loss is great. I've shared this photo a lot recently. It is the last picture I have of my friend. It also sums him up. He took on as much as he could carry all the time. He was a son who brought honor to his parents. He was a loving husband and father who would have dug a hole straight through the earth for them. A man who would speak only good things about his brothers, even right after an argument. Slow to anger and quick to comfort. He was definitely someone to learn from. A true leader who was ready to teach and share. He affected me and my family in the most positive of ways. I look forward to seeing him again.
