“ I am so sorry for the loss of this wonderful person my cousin but most of all a mother grandmother sister and friend. She will be missed I am so sad to hear she is gone but I do know the lord holds her in his arms we will grieve but she is in the house of the lord my mansions are many she is with grandmother and grandfather she is home in the mansion waiting for us. God knows our pain he sees our struggles. God please help this robins family get through this.
