“ It was always a pleasure working in the auto parts business with Ronnie. He was always friendly, professional and really knew the business. I also played on the Perryville Auto men's softball team with him and his brother Mike. Very sad to hear of his passing and condolences to his family.

“ I enjoyed the heck out of playing ball for Ronnie in our patent maroon Perryville Auto jerseys for many years. He always met every kid on those teams with a kind smile and abundance of patience. As we got into high school loved walking in the Kutz house and sitting down in the living room to catch up with Ronnie. It always made me feel great that he was interested in my life and what I had going on. Good man! My sincere condolences.
