“ When I was young from 5 to 15 years old I often visited Aunt Rosella, Uncle Flavian and Kids in the summer from St. Louis. I remember the delicious meals she prepared for us and how much I enjoyed the chicken and dumplings she made. I can still see her rolling out the dough for the dumplings and the homemade pies. I never saw her mad at any of us or have a critical remark, only loving smiles and hugs. It was later in my Adult life when I really began to understand how blessed we were to have an Aunt like her. Thank you Lord for the gift of time you gave us with her.
