“ Mike, Jeff and family..My deepest condolences in the loss of your mom, Ruby. From my earliest memories of my mom bringing me home for a visit, Melvin & Ruby opened their home and heart to me. Melvin’s counsel and Ruby’s smile would brighten those visits as I grew up. The four of us playing, riding horses, just being together made our visits so memorable. Even my husband’s and my last visit had Ruby and Mike welcoming us to her home for supper and Ruby greeting us with her beautiful smile. I will miss her but know she ‘s with your dad and they are looking down over all of us.

Grief and mourning is its own monster. Coming and going and not ever letting go. Please know I understand, and although I’m not able to be there, my heart is with you both and I pray for your comfort, grace and that God gives you both the strength to weather through this.

Please don’t lose touch with this side of your family...you and yours are always welcomed in our homes in Texas and I hope I’ll be able to greet you with half the grace and love your mom always showed me. I will miss your mom and dad every day till God reunites us all. May you both find peace, strength and love.

Your cousin and her family, Linda Mechsner
