“ One of my favorite memories will always and forever be, when Uncle Russell led the rosary before Mass. He would pray the joyful mysteries and the last mystery being finding Jesus in the temple. Uncle Russell would always add "hopefully in the temple of our hearts". Rest in peace Uncle Russell

What a shining example of Christian love. Russell was such a prayerful man and I always expected him to be in church no matter what service it was. He always had a smile for everyone. Our prayers and sympathy are extended to the family. He will be missed but I know his spirit will live on at our church at Apple Creek.
