Sam was a wife, mother, grandma and great grandma, sister and adoring friend to many. She lived a life defined by curiosity and a deep devotion to those she loved and to our Lord Jesus. Her large family was always her priority and gave her joy and a zest for life

Sam was known most of all for her radiant, infectious smile-a gift that could light up any room and immediately put others at ease. She had an adventurous spirit and a lifelong passion for travel. She especially loved the blue waters of the Caribbean. Whether she was exploring new horizons or revisiting favorite destinations, she found joy in the journey and the stories she gathered along the way. Yet, no matter how far she wandered, her favorite place was always surrounded by her family and friends. Sam was a cornerstone of every gathering, cherishing every moment spent sharing laughter and creating memories with her loved ones. Her compassion extended to all living things. A true animal lover, Sam adored her pets and was a fierce advocate for animals in need. Her home and heart were always open to a furry friend, and she found immense peace in their companionship.

“ Aaron, my thoughts and prayers go out to you and your entire family. There will be levels of emotions that will come and go from day to day and I pray each day God gives you peace. It's okay to feel those emotions, just stay afloat and ask for support when you feel like you might be sinking. -Coward

“ To all of Sam's family, especially Cindy, Karen and Amy. I am one of the Modde cousins that come to the lake every July. I am unable to come to the services due to distance, but wanted you to know what a wonderful person Sam was. She was kind, caring, funny, and good to everyone. It's hard for me to realize that she won't be at the lake this summer. I will miss her greatly. God bless you all and may your faith get you through this pain. Much love and many prayers for all of you.
