“ I am very sorry to hear about Sharon. I just found out today and it makes me very sad.
I was in Sharon's wedding and she was a great gal. We did lose touch, but, I know from others she had a wonderful life, just like the person she was. We were in the same class at Oak Ridge School and graduated in 1970. I remember her laugh and the fun we had on the Senior Trip after graduation. My thoughts, even late are with all of her family and she is missed.

We best thoughts, Patricia "Trisha" Schaper

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of Sharon's loss. I had the pleasure of working with her remotely from the Atlas office in VA for several years before her very recent retirement. I was able to visit the Perryville office in 2018 and was so moved when Sharon came in on her day off just so she could meet me in person. My condolences go out to her family and friends.
