“ I used to live in Indian Springs off and on throughout my youth. I believe my Granny Eva was friends with her mom. I remember meeting her for the first time and we both rode in the back of my grandpas truck driving around town. I was so terribly shy around new folks back then, but she was SO outgoing and silly that I felt completely comfortable talking to her. We had so much fun giggling and being silly on that truck ride. I'll always remember her as the smiling/silly girl I hung out with a handful of times in my childhood.

“ I dont know what to say and everyone knows I always have words..but this is the saddest thing. I love stephers and she was always my daughter to me..I worried about her. I named my last baby because I promised her and she was always goofy and fun with me. I have so many joyful memories I dont even know where to start. She was absolutely beautiful and I loved when she came to me for advice on stuff. She was an absolute fantastic writer put me in tears reading me her words over phone. She had spunk and voiced her opinion and I love that about her. She was kind and I am so glad I saw her in 2017. This is someone who will never ever be forgotten in anyway and I will always be saddened by her passing. I LOVE YOU STEPHERS ALWAYS IN MY HEART AND MY PAIN HAS BEEN DEEP I AM SO SORRY FOR ALL OF YOU SADDENED ALSO...I LOVE YOU ALL AND IM SO SORRY THIS HAS HAPPENED 🥹🥹

“ Stephanie and I both shared a love for poetry. I told her once about our aunt Carrie, she wrote as well. Poetry allows us to express our feelings and often becomes song. If anyone has a poem she wrote, please share it.

As memories of Stephanie continue to touch my heart, what I feel most is love. She was full of Love for life and love for us all. She loved unconditionally and would be the first to stand beside you and fight for you when needed. May you remain strong in your love for God, love for self and love for each other. Let this Love unite you, not only in grief but in all things. Embrace your memories and know that she'll be with you always.

May God bless and keep you safe. Love you all, Anna (Aunt Anna to some)

Remember...

"Love is patient; love is kind. Love is not jealous; is not proud; is not conceited; does not act foolishly; is not selfish; is not easily provoked to anger; keeps no record of wrongs; takes no pleasure in unrighteousness, but rejoices in the truth; love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things." [1 Corinthians 13:4-7 NIV]

Stephanie, may your wings flutter like Tweety Bird. ❤️🙌

“ So blessed to Have known Stephanie with her sweet spirit and huge heart. She was a firecracker and full of energy. She loved her family so much that was evident if you only spent 5 minutes with her. Even though she will be missed, I smile to know we will see her again. RIP sweet girl. This isn't goodbye but until we meet again. Sending much love and hugs from your Florida family.

“ I remember the first time I met Stephanie with her sweet smile. She was such a loving person to anyone that she met. I remember her sharing with me her love for Jesus Christ.

I was so impressed by her knowledge and inspiration of the Lord that she loved. She was the one person that kept my sister Barbara informed on what was going on with the family and she would let us know how everyone was doing. I just want to say to her father Clint, mother Kathy, brothers Nathan, Eric, Anthony and sisters Alyssa, Tamara and Marissa as well as her fiancé Bryant Weibrecht, all of you are in my prayers . Please remember when you're feeling sad because she's not here any longer on earth you will one day get to see her again, it's a promise from God. In His word He said if you believe in me and in my word you shall not perish, but you shall have everlasting life. So that tells us life goes on in Heaven after death on earth, it does not stop. What a wonderful God we have always looking out for us so we can have comfort and peace that only He can give .He gave us the way to not only be with Him forever but to also be with our loved ones. May God's peace and understanding be with you all “God Bless. 🙏💕
