“ My condolences to the family. Mr Emmendorfer was a very nice man whom I will remember as a great softball coach. He took extra steps to include players (like me) who couldn't catch a softball, but always felt like a part of the team.

“ My condolences to friends and family of SGM (Ret) Emmendorfer. I got to know Syl while I was assigned full time with the Missouri Army National Guard in Perryville. Syl remained a big part of the unit and continued to be a huge supporter years after he retired. I have many fond memories of visiting with him at the Perryville Armory over a cup of coffee, and I enjoyed his stories. He was heavily involved with keeping the area MOARNG retirees together, and was the go-to guy if I ever wanted to know how to contact someone, or had questions about the history of the unit. I learned that Syl and his family were instrumental in the location and construction of the current Perryville Armory in the mid fifties. Some of the land from his family's farm became the park and a portion was donated for the armory (and the farm house is now the museum). Syl was very helpful and supportive to us and our families when Company B, 1140th Engineer Battalion deployed for combat service in Iraq. He was a great guy who deeply cared about God, his country, his community, family, and friends.

With Condolences,

“ Bob and Debbie I am so sorry to hear about Debbie's father passing. He was the kindest man ever. When I lived down by the park he was always offering me help with my yard or just whatever I might need. God Bless your family. He was such a remarkable man.

To the Family, Friends and Former Bravo Company 1140th Engineers:

I'm truly heart stricken to hear that Syl has passed away. If it were not for him and that caring attitude of his I would never have become an officer in the National Guard. His dedication and attention to detail was very evident in every inspection that we under went. My Condolences to the family knowing full well that he's in a better place to day. Christ has risen, he has risen indeed!
