“ *I was saddened to read of your mother's passing. I knew your parents from St. Richard's Parish. Having grown up in Biehle, your dad and I shared many Biehle stories before church. Your parents and their friend Marcella Zahner and her husband always made plans on where they were going to have dinner after 5 o'clock mass. I visited your dad at the home a few times and it was hard to watch such a sweet man deteriorate. My brother and sister-in-law were living there so I would stop in to say hi. I didn't know your mother other than to see her in church, dressed to the nines and every hair in place. You don't know me but I wanted to extend my condolences to you and let you know how much I enjoyed my talks with your dad.
