“ So sorry to hear of Mrs. Steffens passing. She was a great businesswoman. I bought peaches from her every year. Everything was so hectic, everybody buying up the peaches as fast as they could be picked, but she was always very polite and always looked you straight in the eye as you were speaking, but very efficient. I remember the year she told me this was their last year for peaches, she was retiring, and the kids didn't want to carry on the business. A super lady and I was very fond of her.

My sincere sympathy to the whole family. A beautiful woman that I looked up to because of her sweet and kind demeanor. What a reunion you will have one day. May God's peace surround you today and the days to follow.

“ Your mother was a very special person. She always had a smile and was very proud of all the apples she worked with. We bought many many apples for our large family. We shared the same first name and that was special for both of us. We send our deepest sympathy to the family. Be assured of our prayers and thoughts for all.
