“ Hi Randy and Judy! I was just thinking about your mother a couple weeks ago when I was in our old neighborhood and was wondering how she was doing. She was so sweet and liked everything to be neat and clean! My mom (Mary Agnes Otte) enjoyed talking with her about life and the neighborhood! You have my sympathy and are in my thoughts and prayers! Love, Mary Beth (Otte) Richardet

“ Judy and Randy, I am so very sorry for your loss. What a great Mom and Dad you had! They were such good friends and neighbors. We had so much fun and made many memories until your Dad died, then things began to fall apart for our old gang. I am happy to have known them. They were very loving and caring people and raised you in their image. I love you guys too.

“ Hello dear family,
I am so sorry for the loss of our beloved "Babe".
I know you will miss her terribly.
When I was a young girl I admired her so, working at the Rozier handling all the coupons, register and of course the Eagle Stamps.
Bless you all. I won't make it in person but may you feel the comfort of prayer. Your Cousin
