“ Your Mother, Sister, (my), Mother -in-law, Grandmother, Great Grandmother was such a wonderful person. She was so happy to have her family come by and visit everyday. We learned so much about life and death from her. To live life, laugh, love and not fear death. The world is a much better place to have had her in it.

“ Mary , I am so sorry for you loss , hold on to those memories.. God had a reason why you all was running a day behind coming back from Washington DC , he put you guys in a Day later , so you could run up and see your momma , and the storms kept you in the area . So glad you got to give your mom a big hug and share your trip with her , I didnt know your mom but if she was anything like you , she was amazing.. prayers n thoughts We love you Chuck & Gina Wilson & Charlie ... hugs
