“ I have so many wonderful memories of Uncle Tom and Aunt Eunice. Two of my favorite people. Butchering, playing cards, playing board games, Halloween parties, sleep overs. As a couple they are a fine example of Family and Love. He will be sadly missed.

“ Some details to fill in the obituary statements about this wonderful man...

- He drove a cool car in his younger days...a black mid-60s Chevy Impala, I believe.

- He had hair. Awesome hair!

- He was like a big brother.

- Growing up, he knew that Saturday was the day he could find fresh-baked coffee cake at our home and always found an excuse to drop by.

- He was fun.

- He had hair!

- He was funny.

- He was caring.

- He was sweet.

- He lived his faith!

- Knowing the character of his sons, I can only believe that he was a great dad.

- To deserve her love (and patience), he had to have been a wonderful husband to Aunt Eunice.

- Did I mention that he had awesome hair?!

Dear Uncle, we were blessed by having you in our lives. You are missed.

Aunt Eunice and my cousins: may you feel the warmth and strength of the prayers that surely blanket you now in this most difficult time.

Peace.
