“ Sorry to hear about my dear friend, Viola. She was such a sweet person. I live there at the Sycamore Village apartments and always enjoyed our conversations. I will be unable to attend the services since I am visiting my 2 daughters in Texas. My deepest sympathy to all!

Please accept my sympathy on the death of viola she was truly a very special person I had. I had the privilege of working with her at the hospital for 20 years she was a dedicated employee who loved her job. As I will be unable to attend the memorial services she will always be in my memories.
