This is what happens when we wait too long to be in touch. Virginia and I were cousins. Our fathers were brothers. I only saw her once in my life when we were teenagers and my parents visited the family in Missouri. We corresponded for a while and then lost touch. I tried to contact her recently but didn't know until today that she was already gone. Roy, my sympathy to you and your family. I regret waiting so long. Jo Ann Baer Wingfield

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. I got to know Virginia quite well when she was a mentor for the CHAMPS Mentoring program. She was always so kind , cheerful, and supportive to everyone, especially to the youth she mentored. She definitely made the world a better place. You have been blessed by having a wonderful wife / mother / grandmother. Cherish the wonderful memories of her, until you will be able to hug her again in heaven. Jeanette Klobe
