“ We extend our sincere sympathy to the family. Be assured of our prayers for all of you. Our family will always remember your mom for her teachings of poetry and the many students who had the poetry booklet assignments in eighth grade. Most of our children had these projects to do during her teaching years.

“ A Wonderful Woman ... I was honored to serve The Missouri American Legion Commander the same year Virginia was President of The American Legion Auxiliary... To the family my deepest sympathy, though, she had a great life with Jerome and their family and many many friends. A person of tremendous faith. She is now at rest.

May God be with her

Blessings

“ Virginia was my dear friend for so many years. We had a lot in common. Both of us were teachers and members of the American Legion Auxiliary. We actually met when she was my County Counselor at Missouri Girls State. We had such great times of friendship over the span of years since 1976. Rooming with Virginia at conferences and conventions was always so memorable. She was great at sharing about herself and her wonderful family she was so proud of. I treasure her friendship and am glad we had all the years as friends. I will truly miss her and know that she is finally without pain. Love you my friend. Family members left behind please know that I am thinking of you and praying for your peace. Linda Schaap. P.S. I will treasure all the good times we shared!

To the family of Virginia please accept our condolences on the loss of your mother. Virginia Lee Schnurbusch will always be in our hearts and memories. I have known Virginia for a few years we became close when I was Department Chaplain. I would call and talk with her for a short period she would tell me of her pain. Virginia you are in PEACE. Virginia is already missed. Her calm and cheerful presence. I recall how supportive she was when I had to take over a spring conference at the ALA. The president was ill and absent, the VP was taken to hospital and there I was..a newbie. She said, first of all, 'do not tell them you are nervous" and everything was fine. God bless you Virginia. You are is the best hands now. Ruth Wiemann

My favorite memory of Virginia is the time two other Auxiliary members and I attempted to decorate her room at Convention. Our decorating came to an abrupt halt when we heard Jerome at the door. With no way out of the room and no good place to hide we jumped in the shower and pulled the curtain. Jerome came in the room and just sat down in the chair. Virginia walked in and burst into laughter when she saw Jerome sitting surrounded by our unfinished decorations. Her laughter made us giggle a little too loud and she found us. That brought more laughter from all of us.
