“ I apologize if this is a repetition, but I seem to have lost the obituary thread. We Daughters of Charity owe a great debt of Sisterly thanks to Bill and all the brotherly Vincentians.... You, who loaned this wise and holy man to serve as our Provincial director as we worked hard to turn our four American DC provinces into one. Bill was brotherly, wise, generous and funny in his droll way. Thank you for your generosity of sharing Fr. Bill with us. We will always remember his brotherly goodness to us all.
