There are just not enough words to express how sad we are about Bill's passing. John and I have been good friends of Bill, his wife, Paula, and his daughter Amy for many years. Bill loved his career and serving the City of Perryville. During John's years as a private fire investigator John, Bill, and I attended many fire and arson investigation conferences together. With his twinkling eyes, Bill was always fun to be around and always knew where the best barbecue restaurant was even if it was an hour away. We are truly missing him as well as many others are. Praying for Paula, Amy and Bill's countless friends. Fly with the angels Bill Jones.

“ It's hard to think about Perryville for the last 40 some years without thinking about Bill Jones. He did so much for the Perryville Fire and Police Departments and Immanuel Lutheran Church in Perryville. He always had a smile on his face and never was a stranger to anyone. He was a great guy and will be sadly missed. My sympathy to his family. RIP Bill .
